

6th Asia-Pacific Dialogue Platform on Anticipatory Humanitarian Action

Anticipatory action: building bridges for a stronger disaster risk management system

1-3 November 2022, Bangkok and online

Concept note

Objectives

1. To share knowledge and evidence from the implementation, scale up and evaluation of anticipatory action
2. To learn from country examples on collaboration and scaling up
3. To identify gaps, roadblocks and milestones for a joint way forward

Participant profiles

The 6th Asia-Pacific Dialogue Platform welcomes practitioners, government representatives and scientists with experience or an interest in anticipatory action in the Asia-Pacific region. Nominated participants are encouraged to share lessons from their work and should have experience in anticipatory action, forecast-based financing, early warning early action, disaster risk reduction, community early warning systems, disaster risk financing, or hydrometeorological forecasting.

Location

This year's Asia-Pacific Dialogue Platform will take place in person in Bangkok, Thailand, as well as online. Details about participation (in-person and virtual), registration and the agenda will be shared at the end of September.

Organizers

The 6th Asia-Pacific Dialogue Platform is hosted by the Anticipation Hub and jointly organized by the German Red Cross, the Finnish Red Cross, the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies, the Red Cross Red Crescent Climate Centre, the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, the World Food Programme and the Start Network. It is supported by the German Federal Foreign Office.

Background

In its sixth iteration, the Asia-Pacific Dialogue Platform on Anticipatory Humanitarian Action brings together practitioners, scientists and government representatives from across the region. The increasing momentum and experience from various anticipatory action projects, activations and simulations will allow for rich discussions and an opportunity for cross-country exchanges. You can find more information about the 2021 Asia-Pacific Dialogue Platform on the event website:
